Data Protection Policy

1. About this policy:

This policy explains when and why we collect personal information about our Trustees, Committee Members, Employees, Hirers, Donors and Supporters, how we use it and how we keep it secure and your rights in relation to it.

We may collect, use and store your personal data, as described in this Data Protection Policy and as described when we collect data from you.

We reserve the right to amend this Data Protection Policy from time to time without prior notice. Amendments will not be made retrospectively.

We will always comply with the UK Data Protection Act (UK GDPR) when dealing with your personal data. Further details on the can be found on the website of the Information Commissioner (ico.gov.uk). For the purposes of the UK GDPR, we will be the "controller" of all personal data we hold about you.

2. Personal data protection

We will not knowingly store your personal data outside the EEA.

We utilise widely accepted implementations of technology and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse or unauthorised access, alteration or destruction.

Please note however that while we will endeavour to protect your personal data appropriately, security can never be 100% guaranteed.

We will notify you as soon as practicable in the event of any breach of your personal data which might expose you to risk.

3. Third parties.

We will never sell your personal data. We will not share your personal data with any third parties without your consent (which you are free to withhold) except if required to do so by law, as set out in the table above or in paragraph 4.2 below.

We may pass your personal data to third parties who are service providers, agents and subcontractors to us for the purpose of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (e.g. printing, cloud storage, accounting). However, we would disclose only the personal data that is necessary for the third party to deliver the service, and we will have a contract in place that requires them to keep your personal information secure and not to use it for their own purposes.
